Interview with Bingham Centre Director, Murray Hunt.

Murray Hunt is the Director of the Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law.

Murray is one of the UK's leading human rights barristers and served as the Legal Adviser to the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Human Rights for over a decade.

In 2019, he was appointed as the UK's alternate representative on the Venice Commission.

In the following audio recording Course Instructor Anthony Wenton asks Murray a series of questions about what impact the Rule of Law makes in all of our lives.
